SHRI PARVATHANENI UPENDRA (Andhra Pradesh): Sir, what is all this? Why do you allow it? (Interruptions).

SHRI M. S. GURUPADASWAMY (Karnataka): Mr. Deputy Chairman, Sir, I do not know the reasons for this outburst against the Karnataka Government. They have been trying to topple this Government for the last two years. But they have not succeeded. (Interruptions). Let me have my say. Sir, let me say what I have to say. For the last two years nearly, the Congress Party there and the Centre here are trying desperately to topple that Government. But they have not succeeded. They are using all the power, the money power, the muscle power and what not. But the Karnataka Govt. is even today as solid as a rock.
